VETERANS OF FORMER TRIPS AMONG TRAVELERS

When the "Jamboree special" pulls out of Pottstown this afternoon it will have 35 Pottstown area Scouts and Explorers aboard—some of them veterans of former jamborees.

For Robert S. Smith, Boyertown RD 1, the California gathering beginning July 17 will be his third. The area Scout was present at both the Second National Jamboree at Valley Forge in 1950 and the International Jamboree in Austria in 1951.

So while he didn't attend the First National Jamboree in this country some 15 years ago, he is just as well prepared as if he had.

Gerald Witman, another member of the area's Continental district troop, is a veteran too, having also attended the Valley Forge gathering two years ago.

"I believe this one will be bigger and better, though," he said last night, "and more interesting too, with the trip thrown in."

Witman, who is junior assistant scoutmaster of Seales Memorial Methodist troop 7, is representing that troop in the local jamboree contingent, along with Kenneth Pence, also an assistant scoutmaster.

"I'm most interested in seeing the lumber camps of the Northwest," Witman remarked while discussing the many side trips to interesting places the Scouts will take.

WITMAN WILL be patrol leader of the Comanches, one of four patrols in the district troop.

The other patrols are the Big Wheels, led by Joel Gebert; the Golden Cubs, led by John Johnson, and the Liberty Bells, led by John Geiser.

Each patrol will have a flag to hang in a window of the troop's air-conditioned railroad car, and each member will wear a patrol identification patch.

Both flag and patches will bear the patrol insignia, which in the case of the Comanches, is a red and black Indian.

Roland Morris, First Presbyterian Troop 3 representative, said that he is looking forward to seeing British Columbia, a province of Western Canada, to which the Scouts will take a side trip to see the Royal North West Mounted police and be reviewed by them.

Morris is a First Class Explorer Scout and also a member of the (Continued on Page Five)

It May Be Hot And Yet Profitable

Temperatures zoom up to the 90s and stay there for hours on end these days.

The humidity saturates the atmosphere so much you can almost wring out a quart of water by just reaching up and squeezing a handful of air.

Generally, there's one thing to do—just sit back and relax.

There's one big exception, though. If you're right on the spot when a news story breaks, call 6000, The Mercury number.

It won't take much effort and it may get you some of the $10 newspaper prizes The Mercury hands out each week.

However you do spend it, remember you've got to get on the inside track with that news tip first. Just pick up the phone and call 6000.

QUIET FOURTH MARKS TOWN'S OBSERVANCE

AREA PARKS ARE SCENE OF SMALL ATTENDANCE

Pottstown was as quiet as a hornet's nest in January over the July 4 weekend.

If you went away to rest you made the wrong decision.

If you deserted the borough to outflank the austerity of Pottstown behaviour you probably were successful.

But then sometimes you can get away with more in your own backyard than in neighboring vineyards.

Vacant chairs were more numerous than filled chairs in borough barrooms Saturday night.

Attendance in churches yesterday was just average.

GONE FROM streets and alleys was the boom, boom and crack, crack, crack of July 4 finger crackers.

Firecrackers and crippling weapons were only July memories. To the younger generation they have been unknown.

To almost every adult July 4 stirred faint memories of the wild, noisy Fourth of July when every street would rumble with exploding gunpowder.

After a healthful old time July 4 the smell of black powder would settle in every cellar.

Nearly all who remember the gunpowder Fourth have grim memories of lost fingers, arms or eyes, the work of a firecracker, sky rocket or Roman candle.

Pottstown was indeed serene and calm compared with those rollicking old fashioned Fourth's.

But if Pottstown and other towns like it were calm and cool, there were places where exuberance flowed and flowed.

PEOPLE with time on their hands usually manage to make a stir and there were many people on the beaches and in the mountain resorts on this Fourth of July.

But area parks and groves were less cluttered than on previous weekends.

At Sunnysbrook park an 82-year-old Germantown woman rode the miniature railroad all day with three different engineers.

Owner Raymond Hartenstine said she outlasted three engineers on the little locomotive.

SCHOOL BOARDS PICK PLANNERS

Allentown Firm Selected
For School Addition
At Red Hill

Wolf and Hahn, Allentown, were selected as the architects for the planned joint elementary school addition at the Red Hill school.

The action was taken at a meeting of the Red Hill, East Greenville and Upper Hanover township school boards Friday evening.

The meeting was held at the Upper Perkiomen Joint High School, East Greenville, with Charles Shell, president of the East Greenville school board, in charge.

The new addition will be used as an elementary school by the three districts.

The Red Hill school board will hold its regular meeting tomorrow night at the Red Hill school.

Faints As Son Returns

Mrs. Proscia managed to sob, "Frankie, it's been so long!" The Navy transport "General Sturgis" landed in New York with 1381 veterans of the Korean fighting, the third shipload to come directly from the Far East.

New Soviet Zone Industrial Strikes, Flare-Ups by Farmers Reported

BERLIN, July 5 (AP)—New industrial strikes and unrest among the farmers were reported from the Soviet Zone today. The Communist government admitted the spirit of revolt in East Germany is still alive.

From refugees, West Berlin authorities learned of recent work stoppages in the Eisenberg coal mines, the Zeiss optical works at Jena and a truck factory in Halle.

The workers demanded that comrades arrested in the bloody June 17 uprising be released from prison.

Max Fechner, East minister of justice, notified the government that 50,000 East Germans had been arrested in the crackdown that quelled the revolt after Soviet armored divisions were called into play. Many are gradually being released, largely to appease the sullen and bitterly resentful public.

Top officials of the regime, pedaling up and down the unruly East Zone with promises of better living standards ahead, made re-mines, the Zeiss optical works at Jena and a truck factory in Halle.

Grotewohl published an "open letter" to the farmers, urging them to get on with the job of bringing their crops to harvest and in it he conceded that many are still dissatisfied with mere promises.

"ORGANIZE YOURSELVES and protect your machinery," Grotewohl wrote, "Turn every saboteur over to the People's Police."

There have been reports that Russian-made tractors and threshing machines rather than continue delivering their crops for Soviet consumption.

Deputy Prime Minister Otto Nuschke wrote an editorial in his newspaper, Neue Zeit, designed to show that the East German public now is "grateful" for the Red army action in smashing the rebellion. But in it, he said:

"At first the workers did not fully appreciate the action of the Soviet tanks but today they know the Soviets saved the peace and the holy question of German unity."

Minor Accidents Keep Police Busy Over Long Weekend

A series of minor accidents, resulting in a number of dented fenders and pushed-in grills, gave Pottstown police a busy Fourth of July weekend.

Two cars collided at the intersection of York street and Reynolds avenue early Friday night to become the first of six accidents reported by police over the holiday.

Clayton L. Stauffer, of Phoenixville RD 1, driver of a car owned by Orpha K. Stauffer, same address, said he was crossing the intersection at York and Reynolds while traveling west on Reynolds when he collided with a car operated by Earl K. Geiger, Willow street.

Geiger said he was going north on York when he saw a car coming east on Reynolds. He slowed down to let the car through and then resumed speed. As he did this he saw the Stauffer car but was too late to avoid the accident.

PATROLMAN WILLIAM MARS reported that the front bumper and grill of the Stauffer car were damaged, while the right running board of Geiger's car was pushed in.

At 12:33 o'clock Saturday afternoon, a motorcycle operated by Charles Irving Hampton Jr., of 378 Apple street, tangled with a fence at 160 North Evans street.

Hampton told Motor Patrolman Robert Scheidt that he was traveling north on Evans street and just as he crossed the Walnut street intersection, he lost control of his motorcycle and struck the fence.

Scheidt said the headlight on the motorcycle was damaged in the accident. The fence is on the property of Mary S. Updegrave.

LESS THAN four hours later, Scheidt and Patrolman John Parr investigated a car-truck collision at King and Washington (Continued on Last Page)

UNION TO VOTE ON OFFER OF RAISE TONIGHT

Draftsmen, Engineers
Of Bethlehem Steel
To Ballot

COMPANY WOULD GRANT 5 PERCENT WAGE HIKE

A company proposal granting a 5 percent increase in pay retroactive to June 15, will be put to a vote tonight by members of Local 97, American Federation of Technical Engineers (AFL).

The local, which numbers 60 members, is composed of draftsmen and technical engineers of the Pottstown plant of the Bethlehem Steel company.

Alexander Downie, president, said the proposal came through with an attached clause offering a minimum of $15 a month for the lower wage brackets.

He said the wage increase was proposed by the company without any company-union negotiations, even though the union suggested opening wage talks early in May.

"SINCE THERE have been no negotiations between us and the company, the decision on the acceptance of the company offer rests with the membership."

Downie noted the local will have one of two issues to vote upon: Will they accept the offer outright, or will they reject it and submit a counter proposal to the company.

These will be put to a test tonight when the local members assemble at the Labor Lyceum at 7:30.

Downie explained that under the company-union contract the local has the right to open wage talks. He pointed out the contract went into effect about one year ago.

Trumans Motoring Back to Missouri From East Coast

HARRISBURG, July 5 (AP)—The short, slender man in the white sport shirt and slacks watched the gasoline station attendant fill up the tank of his car and then turned to the lady on the front seat.

"Bess, mark that down. That's 11 gallons at $3.45."

Mrs. Bess Truman nodded and pulled a little black notebook out of the glove compartment to add the new figures to a growing list.

That small ceremony, said former President Harry S. Truman, has been a ritual on his current motor trip from his home in Independence to the East coast and now on his return.

LIKE THOUSANDS of other motorists out on the open road, he was proud of the way his car was performing.

"It's really perking along," he said. "I'm getting about 17 miles (Continued on Last Page)

Obliging Attendant Proves Wrong Man

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., July 5 (AP)—R. M. Daniels of Macon, Ky., in Virginia, to which he retires occasionally for relaxation.

"Put it right over here," a man said.

Daniels complied, handed over the keys and walked off.

Several hours later, he came back but his car was gone. It was then he noticed a sign saying "this lot will not be operated July 4."

Police recovered the vehicle in front of a drive-in restaurant and arrested Vernon Hester, Ocoee, Tenn., on a grand larceny charge.

"I thought he was the attendant," Daniels said. "He even offered to mail some letters for me."

Woman Reaches for Cat, Falls From Second Story

NEW YORK, July 5 (AP)—A cat climbed out on a window sill of a second story apartment on River side drive today.

Mrs. Helen Morton, 57, reached for the pet and fell from the window.

A schoolteacher, Mrs. Morton suffered a fractured skull and other injuries. At a hospital, her condition was described as critical.

Man Sailing Atlantic in Small Boat Forced Aground on Final Leg to N. Y.

OCEAN CITY, Md., July 5 (AP)—land on July 11, 1951. He was a 32-year-old wind-burned British-seeker, who sailed the Atlantic alone in his friend, Clifford Anthony Broom, his 25-foot sailboat, was forced of Oxford, who Fox said originally around here early today on the had wanted to walk around the final leg of a 7000 mile journey to world.

Colin L. Fox, of Osterly Middlesex, told Coast Guardsmen and yachting and talked Broom into making the trip with him by boat.

Their boat, the Deben Peace, carried 350 feet of sail—two foresails and a mainsail. It has an eight-foot beam.

After stops at Albewach, France; Cedira, Spain; and Lisbon and Aveiro, Portugal, they reached Tangier, North Africa, Fox said Broom had been sick much of the time and decided by that time "he had had enough, so I bought his share of the boat."

Fox said he worked at Casa (Continued on Last Page)

Burglars Enter Local Milk Bar, Get $85 in Goods

Burglars called on Woodley's Milk Shake Bar, West High street, sometimes early Saturday morning and made off with merchandise valued at $85.

Robert Woodley, of 254 West King street, who opened the milk bar just two weeks ago, said the thief, or thieves, stole 40 cartons of cigarettes and 25 pennies from the cash register.

The robbery occurred between 1:15 a. m. when Woodley locked up for the night and 8 a. m. when he returned to reopen for business.

Woodley explained he first noticed the robbery just as he was about to open the rear door. He said he always enters his place of business through the back door in the morning.

Following a quick preliminary check, Woodley telephoned the police.

UPON ARRIVING on the scene, Motor Patrolman Earl Rhoads surmised that the thief must have entered the building through the back window.

He reported the window was forced open after the intruder broke one of the panes of glass. An empty milk case, probably used by the burglar to climb through the window, was found below the sill.

The window used to gain entrance is about six feet from the ground. Inside is a storage room. When opened, the window measures about 15 inches by 16 inches.

In a search for clues, Rhoads found a light-colored cap outside the window. The cap was described as the type worn by "gas" station attendants or truck drivers.

Rhoads also found a gray rag nearby which was of the same variety used by a service station worker.

Police reported last night that the investigation will be continued. All of the merchandise stolen was insured, Woodley said.

Salvation Army Sets Valley Forge Visit To Entertain Patients

Ten members of the Salvation Army Women's auxiliary will leave Pottstown tonight to entertain patients at Valley Forge Army hospital.

Under the leadership of Capt. C. Robert Flinn, the group will leave the citadel at 6:30 o'clock. At the hospital, they will serve refreshments to tuberculosis patients in wards 15, 16 and 17.

Pottstonians expected to make the trip are: Mrs. Leta Gaul, Mrs. Mae Jones, Mr. and Mrs. George Lambrecht, Mrs. Ruth Linton, Mrs. Francis Leh, Mrs. Helen Patterson, Mrs. Laura Sassman and Jeanie Shaffer.

Mrs. Fay Speer and Mrs. Emma Thomas, of Kenilworth, round out the list of visitors.

Steel Workers Get Wage Boost Report

Members of Bethlehem Local 2177, United Steel Workers (CIO), yesterday were given a full report on the 8½ cent hourly wage boost granted employees this past June 12.

President James K. Dilliplane explained features of the new contract.

A safety and health report was given by James "Chick" Hawk, chairman of the health and safety committee.

Paul Jenkins, treasurer of the credit union, submitted his monthly report.

Stewards met at 1 p. m. prior to the general meeting, and discussed grievances.

Both meetings were held at the CIO hall, 354 King street.

The next stewards and officers session will be held July 20.

Fourth of July Death Toll Nears 400; 220 Die in Auto Crashes, 100 Drown

By The Associated Press
The Nation's Fourth of July holiday weekend death toll rolled up toward the 400 mark Sunday night. During the 51 hours from 6 p. m. Friday until 11 p. m. Sunday the fatalities totaled 357.

Of that total 220 were killed in automobile accidents, 100 drowned, 36 died from miscellaneous causes. The National Safety Council had forecast that auto mishaps would kill 290.

Probably the worst automobile accident occurred near Lancaster, Ky., where six persons were killed and five critically injured in a two-car crash.

Among the miscellaneous deaths was that of Edgar A. Chaffin, who choked to death on a steak sandwich at Knoxville, Tenn.

Southern California's Huge Fire Threatens New Areas of Forest

LOS ANGELES, July 5 (AP)—The huge fire in Southern California's San Gabriel mountains has in three days burned 5 percent of the timber in Angeles National forest and is still out of control and threatening new areas, the US forest service said today.

Foresters said they can't possibly control it before Wednesday noon, and then only with luck in weather and humidity.

Flames have charred 36,000 acres and destroyed at least eight dwellings since the fire broke out in the Sulphur Springs area 25 miles northeast of Los Angeles.

Today the flames, being fought by nearly 1000 men, broke out anew at three points—Cooper Canyon, near Buckhorn camp and along Santiago Canyon. No dwellings were under immediate threat at the "hot spots," but the breakthrough threatened new areas of watershed.

THE BLAZE today jumped the Angeles crest highway, main artery linking Los Angeles with Palmdale and the Antelope valley.

The fire, worst in the area in 11 years, has been steadily expanding Northeast and Northwest as it burns down the eastern slope of the San Gabriels, aided by 90-degree weather, low humidity and gusty winds from the desert.

Scheidt said the headlight on the motorcycle was damaged in the accident. The fence is on the property of Mary S. Updegrave.

LESS THAN four hours later, Scheidt and Patrolman John Parr investigated a car-truck collision at King and Washington (Continued on Last Page)

Prospects of Truce Remain in Doubt As Reds Hint of Signing Despite Rhee

SEOUL, Monday, July 6.—Prospects for a South Korean-US accord on a Korean armistice remained clouded in doubt today while Red China's official radio appeared busy trying to widen the differences between the two allies.

The broadcast raised speculation in Seoul that the Communists were hinting that they might sign a truce with the United Nations regardless of South Korean objections.

South Korea's President Syngman Rhee and Walter S. Robertson, President Eisenhower's special envoy, met again today—their ninth secret session—in the 11th day of US efforts to gain Rhee's backing for an armistice.

Robertson, assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs, entered Rhee's hilltop mansion at 11 a. m. (20 p. m. Pottstown time Sunday).

AN EXPECTED MEETING between the two Sunday failed to take place. Instead, Rhee told Associated Press correspondent Bill Shinn he did not know whether the deadlocked talks with President Eisenhower's emissary would succeed.

"I am trying to clear up misunderstandings," said the President. He has adamantly opposed a truce agreement which would end the fighting with Korea still divided.

At Pusan, South Korea's Defense Minister Sohn Wun Il said the ROK Government issued strict orders Friday prohibiting escaped North Koreans from enlisting in the ROK Army.

Previously the South Korean Government has taken the position that any Korean could enter the Army and fight for the country.

Sohn flatly denied a report of a reliable military source which said that more than 1500 of the former POWs had voluntarily entered the Army since July 1. He said that if any of them had been inducted in the draft process they would be discharged.

It was Rhee's order to ROK guards to release the prisoners that disrupted truce negotiations June 18 just as the armistice was ready for signing.

Two Senators Claim House Action Needed On Appropriations

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Two Senate Appropriations committee members said today they look for House action shortly to break a growing log jam of bills to finance Government operations during the next 12 months.

The House so far has failed to appoint conferees to settle differences with the Senate on five appropriations bills carrying more than three billion dollars for the new fiscal year that began July 1.

A $3,444,145,000 (B) appropriation bill for the Treasury and Postoffice departments is the only regular supply measure that has been enacted thus far.

It got through for one reason. The Senate accepted it without change as it passed the House, thus sending it directly to President Eisenhower for his signature.

IN FIVE OTHER money bills, different amounts have been voted by the two branches and these will have to be adjusted by conference committees.

Senator Mundt (R-SD) said the House Appropriations committee, headed by Representative Tabor (R-NY), has been "trying to stall" until it can get a complete picture of the spending program.

The Senate has appointed its conferees but the House has not—even though one of the bills cleared both branches as long ago as May 20.

Senator Mundt (R-SD) said the House Appropriations committee, headed by Representative Tabor (R-NY), has been "trying to stall" until it can get a complete picture of the spending program.

PEIPING RADIO LASHES RHEE IN BROADCAST

Red China Returns To 'Hate America' Tone

TOKYO, Monday, July 6.—Peiping radio issued a thinly veiled warning today that it still would consider a mutual defense pact between the US and South Korea proof of military support for President Syngman Rhee's plans to continue the Korean war.

"It is clear that anyone who supports Rhee is world public enemy No. 1," said the broadcast. It did not mention the US by name.

Communist broadcasts thus returned to their normal belligerent tone after briefly dropping the hate America theme on Sunday.

Peiping has inveighed before against the defense pact.

THE LATEST broadcasts, as heard in Tokyo, were attributed to special correspondents of the new China News agency in Kaesong, Red truce headquarters.

Correspondent Wu Min was quoted as saying "if the American Government really wants an armistice in Korea, it must take all measures to deal with and prevent the criminal actions of the Rhee clique to undermine the prisoner of war agreement and obstruct the armistice."

"Further American failure to take drastic steps and actions against the Rhee plot will only reveal that the American command is continuing to connive at and encourage Rhee's criminal plans against peace."

Another broadcast, similar in tone, asserted that South Korea and the Chinese Nationalists were planning to detain "by force" large numbers of captured Chinese Red prisoners.

Such charges have been aired frequently in the past.

The earlier Sunday broadcast was astonishingly mild toward the US but blasted Rhee as a "political gangster" and truce-wrecker.

Senate-House Battle Expected on Aid Bill For European Army

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Representative Voris (R-Ohio) today predicted a Senate-House fight over a proposal that would require President Eisenhower to hold back a billion dollars of military aid to Europe until a six-nation international Army is formed.

The House included the mandatory proposal in its foreign aid authorization bill. The Senate voted to permit—but not require—Eisenhower to hold up the money.

Voris said in an interview this probably will be the main issue when Senate and House representatives meet Tuesday to adjust differences in the two bills.

Voris, one of the key House negotiators, said he expected little difficulty in deciding how much money to authorize for the program during the year ending June 30, 1954.

THE SENATE HAS approved $5,318,000,000. The House voted $4,998,000,000. President Eisenhower requested $5,474,000,000.

The authorization bill merely sets a ceiling. Both Houses must vote the money later. Cuts up to two billion dollars have been predicted.

But the House voted to earmark half of European military aid—$1,039,844,935—to the still unformed European Defense Community (EDC) and its proposed international Army.

Newspaper Says Church Is Blocking Romance of Princess and Townsend

LONDON, July 5.—The Sunday Express today accused the Church of England of blocking a marriage between pretty Princess Margaret and dashing, divorced group Capt. Peter Woollidge Townsend.

The handsome, 38-year-old commander, three decorated as a battle of Britain air hero, has served as an equerry of the Royal family since 1944.

Hard on the heels of rumors linking his name romantically with that of the 22-year-old princess, Townsend was detached from his post with the Royal household and ordered the past week to Brussels as air attaché of the British embassy. He is slated to take over his new duties in about two weeks.

The Express said "people in a position to know" have disclosed that "high members of the Royal family were not opposed to the match, but had been advised to break it up."

THE EXPRESS SAID the "only possible opposition" would be from the Church of England which stands firmly against the remarriage of divorced persons.

Townsend won a divorce from his wife, Rosemary, in 1952 on grounds of misconduct. He was awarded custody of their two sons. She has since married John De PRINCESS MARGARET is now in Rhodesia with Queen Mother Elizabeth. Photographs from there have shown her looking somber and dispirited.

Townsend was to have made the trip to Rhodesia as equerry, but was relieved of his assignment just before the tour began.

Meanwhile, the Sunday Pictorial pointed out that after she is 25, Margaret can marry Townsend even without the consent of her sister, Queen Elizabeth II.

Under the Royal marriage act, a member of the Royal family who is 25 and wishes to marry, may give notice to the Privy Council and, after a 12-month lapse, go ahead with the nuptials whether the sovereign approves or not.

Margaret will be 25 in August, 1953.

The child was in the rear seat of the family car. The accident occurred on Route 8 between Freesport and Butler in Butler county.

AIR FORCE MEN Charge Kaiser With Padding

Group Says Officials Of Union Paid For Not Working

WASHINGTON, July 5.—The Air Force has estimated that the Kaiser Motor company paid more than a million dollars to "non-working union officials"—shop stewards, bargaining representatives and the like—in 1951 and 1952 some of it in overtime bonuses for work never done.

An Air Force survey team found that about half of the amount, paid under contracts with the CIO United Automobile Workers union, was charged up to Kaiser automobile operations, and half to the production of cargo airplanes for the Air Force.

The survey team said, in a report filed with a Senate Armed Services subcommittee, that the Kaiser plant employed twice as many workers on its Air Force contracts as were needed, and frequently told idle workers to "go count rivets."

It said morale of the regular workers suffered from this, thus helping to account for the Willow Run, Mich., plant's "poor record of accomplishments" in producing airplanes.

THE AIR FORCE canceled 200 million dollars worth of cargo plane contracts with Kaiser during subcommittee hearings which indicated that Kaiser costs were about five times as great as other producers of the same airplanes.

The Air Force team reported that $517,295 was paid to 95 full-time non-working union officials in 1951, and estimated that $620,000 was paid to 101 such representatives in 1952.

It estimated that about $250,000 of this sum was paid on Air Force work in 1951 and $300,000 in 1952.

One of the shop stewards received $17,935 in 1951, the report said, and the average for union representatives in 1951 was $6300 each.

Urge to Gamble Discussed by Pastors

With Mercury Readers

Can Be Put to Good Use, Speakers Tell Local Churchgoers

The urge to gamble can be put to good use, Pottstown churchgoers heard yesterday.

Two speakers, a pastor and a visiting seminary professor, dealt with the subject in sermons from two local pulpits.

Their topics were similar, and so were the courses of action they recommended.

The first speaker was Prof. George W. Davis, former pastor and now a professor at Crozer Theological Seminary, Chester.

Speaking at First Baptist at the morning worship and Communion service, he chose as his topic "A Gambler for God."

THE OTHER was the Rev. Donald T. Floyd, pastor of Trinity Evangelical Congregational, who preached on the topic "Wanted, Gamblers," at vespers in that church last night.

Both speakers told their listeners that if men are willing to gamble their wealth on the whims of chance, they should be as willing to gamble their lives in the service of God.

The reward of the gambler in worldly goods may be more worldly goods, it was explained, but the reward of a gambler for God is eternal life.

"Stake all you have on God," Professor Davis urged in his sermon, "Put God in first place."

"There is no 'second place' for God in the life of a consecrated Christian," he added.

HE ILLUSTRATED his theme with the true story of a Japanese Christian leader who was cut off from a rich uncle's fortune because he preferred to devote his life to religious work.

The consecrated Japanese had seen gamblers lose every worldly possession—including their clothes—in games of chance, he added, and this inspired him to throw away his worldly inheritance in favor of spiritual riches.

Other Christian leaders who gambled their lives for God, Professor Davis pointed out, were General William Booth, of the Salvation Army and St. Bonaventura.

"These men gambled on a

ENDS TRAINING—Prof. Charles J. Chilton, 18, son of Mrs. Helen M. Gilley, Pennsburg, has completed basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky., it was reported yesterday. Chilton, who entered the Army on Feb. 17, is serving with the Third Armored division and has completed the 16 weeks of indoctrination with that outfit.

"sure thing" when they gambled on God," the speaker emphasized.

HE POINTED out that "occasional Christians" or "twice a year churchgoers" are the timid, penny-ante gamblers for God. They don't have the courage to stake their whole being on Christian service.

The Rev. Floyd said in his sermon that the gambling and the adventurous instincts are closely related in human beings.

"But while people are willing to indulge their craving for adventure in petty, safe ways, they shrink from taking part in the 'big adventure' of Godly living," he explained.

Devoted Christian service is the only satisfactory way of harnessing the gambling urge for true happiness, the pastor concluded.

Professor Davis also administered Holy Communion at First Baptist yesterday in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Laurence T. Beers, who is attending the Christian writers conference at Green Lake, Wis.

100 Persons Attend Joint Services Held at Church Here

Members of New Hope Baptist church, Norristown, Mr. Herman o'clock.

Altar flowers in Baltzell church yesterday were given by Mrs. Jonathan Altung and family in memory of Jonathan Altung.

About 100 persons attended the 2 p. m. service, which was held at Second Baptist.

The Rev. Bernice Faison, pastor of New Hope Baptist was guest speaker. His topic was "Going My Way."

The way to go, he pointed out in his talk, is the way of Jesus—not the way of personal preference.

Mrs. Barbara Talson made the welcoming address and acted as a mistress of ceremonies for the ceremonies for music by the New Hope Baptist choir.

Mrs. Leonard Howard, president of the Pastor's Aid club, spoke briefly, and the Rev. Heywood L. Butler, pastor of Second Baptist, introduced the Rev. Faison.

Pottstown's Seventh Day Adventists will leave this week for the ten-day camp meeting of the East Pennsylvania conference beginning Thursday at Emmanuel Grove, near Allentown.

There will be no Adventist services here for two weeks, a spokesman said last night.

Paul W. Miller's Sunday school class presented the flowers on the altar of St. Peter's Lutheran, Stowe, yesterday.

Baltzell and Salem EUB church officials will hold a joint meeting and social gathering tonight on the "Lightning" struck the spacious home of the Snoopes for one solid week while the family of five was holding on the beach at Wildwood, N. J.

And "Lightning" can strike your home in Pottstown if you're not careful.

When Mrs. Carter reentered the busy kitchen after a week in the sun, the first evidence of "lightning" greeted her.

Goose feathers from a living room pillow were scattered all over the floor. The kitchen table cloth was shredded into tiny pieces.

Running into the dining room Mrs. Carter's hat dropped to her chest. A waste basket was turned upside down and papers were strewn in the four corners.

THREE seat covers were ripped. The ink blotter on father's desk had been broken in many chunks not bigger than post cards.

The living room was completely

Hoping that everything is in order in their home is the Amos Bethel family, Spring City Rd. 1.

They wrote from Sebewaing, Mich., enjoying a few days up in Michigan. Their card showed Charlie's place, Sebewaing.

MIAMI BEACH and Silver Springs, two of Florida's premier vacation playgrounds were the source of separate greetings.

Florida Drummer, Earlville, wrote from Silver Springs.

Lester Harner and family, 18 West Sixth street, and Kathryn Uba, Royersford, reported from Silver Springs. "Sure is wonderful down here. Are having a nice time. Weather is about

And over in the far corner "Lightning" sat with his great lower jaw resting on his paws.

"You see 'Lightning' was a mammoth bulldog and the Snoopes left for the shore with the beast locked in the house. There was no food for the poor animal and he attacked everything his jaws could bend.

LIGHTNING breathed in great gasps. His ribs showed through his heavy black hide.

That night around the dinner table the Snoopes resolved never again to leave on vacation with Lightning alone in the house.

One of the rules for a successful vacation and a successful return is the adequate preparation for care of all household pets. Max, the parrot, Felix the cat, Cathy the canary and Lightning must have food, water and a WALKS OUT ON QUIZ—Mrs. Ellen Knauff, 28, a German war bride, walked out on an Immigration Service hearing in New York on her petition to become a citizen. She was admitted to this country on Nov. 2, 1951, after a three-year battle to be cleared of espionage charges. She said she would not participate in any hearing which involved a "rehashing" of the old charges.

Joyce Miller, Royersford, wrote from Lafayette, Ind. "Hi Everybody—The weather is very hot, the campus is wonderful. We're here at Purdue for one week. Be back soon."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Stout, Pottstown Rd. 2 wrote from Du-shore, Sullivan county. "Spending a week here away from the heat of town."

Their card showed World's End State park, Sullivan county. "Tell all our friends we are having a wonderful time."

This was the message penned from Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fizekas, 408 Berks street, Stowe, from Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada.

A picture of the falls was included on their greeting.

Boy Apes Tarzan, Topples From Tree

A Pottstown boy playing like Tarzan in the tree wound up in the hospital early yesterday afternoon.

Kenneth Richards, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Richards, 418 May street, fractured his left wrist when he fell from a tree while playing on a vacant Washington street lot.

He was swinging on a branch six feet above the ground when he lost his grip and fell on his wrist.

He ran home after the accident and was hurried to Pottstown hospital. He was admitted at 2:45 o'clock.

His father reported last night, "He's coming along all right. We expect him home tomorrow."

Patricia Ann Gerhard, Solon William Baley Jr. Repeat Nuptial Vows

Patricia Ann Gerhard, Boyertown, and Solon William Baley Jr., Reading, exchanged wedding promises in a Fourth of July ceremony Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Gerhard, 200 South Washington street, Boyertown, are the parents of the bride.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Solon William Baley, 1011 Perry street, Reading.

Boyertown's Gospel hall was the setting for the double ring service, and the altar was filled with white and yellow flowers. Bows of white satin marked the pews.

Officiating at the service was the Rev. Henry A. Armerding, Westfield, N. J.

Before the wedding, Christine Manger presented a 20-minute recital of bridal music.

Her selection included "O Promise Me," "I Love You Truly" and "Donnelly, Limerick, a classmate of the bride.

She wore a frock of orchid-organza over taffeta, its fitted bodice cut with a V neckline, pointed collar and cap sleeves.

Beneath the fitted waist, her bouffant skirts of orchid organza spread over under-layers of taffeta.

To complete her costume, she wore white gloves and a summery picture hat in matching orchid.

Streamers of orchid tied her colonial bouquet of white and yellow carnations.

Richard Smith, Reading, stood alongside the groom as the best man.

Ushers included Frank Burkhardt Jr., Reading, a nephew of the bride, and Donald A. Ross, Philadelphia, an uncle of the bride, home and residing in the home of the bride's parents.

After the service, a reception followed in the church.

To greet guests, the mother of the bride selected a print frock of pink and gray. Her accessories were in white.

The mother of the bridegroom was attired in a soft gown of powder blue accented with accessories of white.

Both mothers pinned to their shoulders corsages of white roses and lily-of-the-valley.

Later, the newlyweds left to spend a week-long honeymoon journeying through the New England states.

To travel, the bride changed into a frock of navy blue, frosted with white trimming, and shoes, bag, hat and gloves of white. She completed her costume with the orchid from her bridal Bible.

After July 12, they will be in Philadelphia, home and residing in the home of the bride's parents.

Graduated from Boyertown High school with the class of 1950, the bride is a student nurse at Lancaster hospital in Philadelphia. She will continue with her training and her course will be completed in January, 1954.

Her husband was graduated from Reading High school with the class of 1948 and works for the Charles F. Luppold Sheet Metal Contractor firm in Reading.

He served for two years in the United States Army and saw action in Korea for eight months.

Guests attended the wedding from Reading, Harrisburg, Orwigsburg, Kutztown, Philadelphia, Allentown and the surrounding vicinity.

Mrs. Emerson Bealer Announces Troth Of Her Daughter to Marry Walter Price

BETROTHED—Nurse Dolores Bauer, above, is the bride-elect of Walter Price, 822 North Washington street. The engagement was announced by the mother of Dolores, Mrs. Emerson Bealer, 118 Chestnut street. A December wedding is planned. The bride-elect was graduated from the Reading hospital school of nursing. Her fiancé won his degree from West Chester State Teachers' college.

Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Price, 822 North Washington street.

The affianced pair has made plans for a Christmastime wedding December 26.

Dolores was graduated from Pottstown Senior High school. Recently, she was graduated from the Reading hospital school of nursing.

Her benedict-elect is another graduate of Pottstown Senior High school.

He was awarded his Bachelor's degree from the West Chester State Teachers' college.

At present, he is employed as a member of the faculty of the Warwick township consolidated school.

DEBUTANTE — Pictured at right is the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Rafferty, Millhouse, Laurel Locks Farms. Anne Rafferty was presented to society in June. Her coming-out party, given by her parents, took the form of a swimming party and dinner dance. The bud's debut gown was of traditional white, a full-skirted creation of summery lace with a low-cut neckline and cap sleeves. To complete her costume, the dark-haired debutante wore a single strand of pearls and tiny ear-clips. She carried a bouquet of orchids, gardenias and fern.

Women's Society for Christian Service Moves Its Picnic Party Indoors to Fellowship Hall After Rain Chases Club From Park

Forty members attended the annual picnic of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church, held Thursday.

Due to rain the majority of the members deserted their original meeting place, Sunnybrook, for Fellowship hall where the planned program took place.

Carolyn Umstead and Barbara Noll, delegates to Camp In-Nah, Pughtown, reported on there week's stay.

Run as a school of missions for teen agers was the program in which the girls participated to study the regular lessons each day. Each night there was a fellowship program.

They attended, with other campers, the convocation held in Franklin Field the past Sunday. Their program closed with a candlelight program in Sunset Tryst open air church.

Devotions were led by Mrs. William Hurley. Her topic was "Fellowship through Intercession."

Mrs. Henry Schneider, president, announced that there would be a Philadelphia conference meeting Sept. 9 in the First Methodist church, Germantown.

Mrs. John F. Merkel was named delegate to the school of missions at Pocano Plateau, July 11 to 18.

Tentative plans were made to hold a flower show in the Fall.

Former Area Man and Penn SAE Now Serving in the US Air Force Marries a Girl From Texas at Ceremonies Held in San Antonio

John E. McLaren, a former Gilbertsville lad now stationed as an Air Force private in San Antonio, Tex., married a Texas bride at June services in San Antonio.

First Methodist church was the scene of the wedding which joined John and his bride, Sally Alford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Alford, Beaumont, Tex.

Mother of the groom is Sarah McLaren, Abilene.

Officiating at the double ring service was the Rev. William E. Lance, a cousin of the bride from El Paso, Tex.

Organ music was played before and after the service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of pale blue cotton eyelet over yellow chintz.

Sleeveless, the bodice featured a scoop neckline and was fitted over a full bouffant skirt. Four layers of chintz formed the underskirt.

In place of a veil, the bride wore a large round picture hat of matching blue eyelet, encircled with a band of yellow satin which fell in double streamers down her back.

She wore an heirloom locket of white gold around her throat and short, white gloves. Her stockings were dyed pale blue as were her linen pumps.

She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations and white camellias framed in blue eyelet.

Sole attendant of the bride was her sister, Victoria Alford.

Designed identically to the bride's frock, her gown was of yellow cotton eyelet over pale blue chintz.

She wore a matching yellow eyelet picture hat, yellow slippers and carried in white gloved hands a bouquet of blue cornflowers and white gardenias in a circle of yellow eyelet.

Best man was Roy E. McDevitt, another Air Force private.

After the service, a reception was held in the home of an aunt and uncle of the bride in San Antonio.

Mexico City and Tanco were the honeymoon destinations of the newlyweds, who will make their home in San Antonio when they return.

The bride attended the University of Texas in Austin where she wore the anchor badge of Delta Gamma sorority.

The groom was a student at the University of Pennsylvania where his fraternity was Sigma Alpha Epsilon before he entered the service.

When he receives his discharge, both he and his bride plan to continue their studies at the University of Texas.

Soft Drink and Alcoholic Stains

By Marvyn Miller

With warm weather approaching, there's hardly a family in the land that won't be drinking either soft drinks or alcoholic drinks of some kind.

A few words to the wise can help avoid serious consequences. SOFT DRINKS: All of the common soft drinks, such as the colas, rootbeers, ginger ale, and "pop" fall into the category of the "tannin-like" stains.

These remain invisible until heat is applied. Then a characteristic brown stain appears—fixed for good.

The same suggestions apply here that do for all "tannin-like" stains. If the garment is washable, sponge it out with clear water only. NEVER USE SOAP. And don't iron until absolutely sure all of the soft drink is out.

If the garment is dry cleanable one, DO NOTHING. No rubbing or wiping. And if you'll tell us where the stain is when you bring the garment in, we'll give it the special treatment such stains require. And don't let the garment sit around in the closet. Moth's just love stains.

ALCOHOLIC DRINKS: In general, the same precautions as with soft drinks. The one exception is that alcohol frequently causes dyes to bleed off. There is, unfortunately, no real remedy for this.

With dry cleanable garments we recommend that you immediately bring them in for cleaning.

In either case, the reason for quick action is that—in addition to the reasons cited above—the longer the stains stay on the fabric the more deeply imbedded they become—and through aging, the more permanent they become.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Joan L. Evans and Groom, Leon Keller

Double ring services conducted Saturday afternoon united in marriage Joan L. Evans, Sunnyside, and M. Leon Keller, also of Sunnyside.

Joseph Evans, Norristown, is the father of the bride.

The groom is the son of Ella Keller, who resides in Sunnyside town.

St. John's Lutheran church in Sunnyside formed the background for the wedding at which the Rev. E. L. Angstadt, pastor officiated.

Organist for the service was Stella Kiemann, Green Lane.

Ralph Mascola, Ambler, acted as vocalist, and sang a program of nuptial songs.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace and tulle gown of white lace and tulle.

Her noice, made entirely from lace, was cut with an illusion neckline, filled in with sheer nylon net.

Below the fitted waistline, the skirt of pleated nylon cascaded over layers of satin to reach floor length. The bride wore white slippers.

From a white headpiece fell the bride's veil of finger-tip length.

She carried a prayerbook topped with a white orchid and 12 white roses, tied with satin streamers in a shower effect.

Margaret Copeland, Ambler, was maid of honor and the bride's sole attendant.

Her gown was made of pale blue satin, and cut along princess style lines, with a matching headpiece.

She carried a bouquet made of 15 yellow roses.

Linwood Keller, a brother of the bridegroom, served as the best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Boulder Valley Gun Club, Sunnyside.

Later, the couple left for a weeklong honeymoon near Childs park in the Poconos.

For her going-away costume, the bride selected a linen suit of blue and white.

Her accessories also were in blue and white. She completed her outfit by pinning her bridal orchid to her shoulder.

After they return, the newlyweds will make their home in Sunnyside.

Graduated from Altoona High school in 1949, the bride is employed by the Lansdale Tube company.

Her husband, who was graduated from East Greenville High school with the class of 1946, is employed by the American Tiling company in Lansdale.

'Cookery and Clubs Go Together' Says Pottstown's 3d Cool Culinarian

By HELEN SAMMET
(Mercury Staff Writer)

As president of the St. Clair's PTA, Mrs. Leander Gibble, another of Pottstown's "cool cooks," finds that her aptitude for cookery helps her in her president's position.

he donates his jeeps to our school festival."

Her husband's hot-weather hobby is working in his rose garden, "very tiring work," he claims. When he comes into the house for dinner, he expects a full meal and Mrs. Gibble gives it to him.

Small onion finely chopped and by mixing four and one half cups of flour, one and one half cups of shortening, two teaspoons of salt and 14 tablespoons of ice water.

Then she rolls out the crust, for the top and the bottom. The remaining dough she rolls in wax paper and places in the ice box to be used at a future date.

Macaroni salad is also used by Mrs. Gibble to feed her hungry family. She takes one half pound of macaroni and boils it in salt water until done.

She cuts up one small celery stalk, one small onion, one green pepper, one small cucumber and adds this to the macaroni. Salad dressing is added and she garnishes the mixture with hard boiled eggs.

For a Summer chicken recipe, Mrs. Gibble advises a simple stewed chicken which will but cooks in 15 minutes.

"Add just enough water to cover the chicken," she advises, "then put in two pieces of celery, three or four whole carrots, a bunch of parsley and an onion."

She lets this cook until the chicken is done, and she then adds cornstarch to make the sauce thick.

Fish wishes of her family are satisfied with an easy-to-prepare fillet or scallops. The fillet is dipped in bread crumbs and fried. Bread and egg are both used to dip the scallops in. Then they are fried in deep fat.

Squash is prepared by Mrs. Gibble by peeling the skin off the vegetable and dipping the squash in flour and salt.

It is fried by her to a deep brown and served with sliced tomatoes.

There is enough time for roasts during the winter. In the summer, lighter dishes will do just as well.

Mrs. Gibble is the former Mary Rudy, Coatesville. Her husband is a native of Sanatoga.

They have one child Gloria who is ten years old and attends St. Clair's school. Three dogs, Judy, Sandy and Jo Jo also form part of the household.

Mrs. Gibble and her husband have a prize rose garden, which they tend very carefully. "Unfortunately," she says the rain ruined most of it this year.

In addition to baking for various St. Clair events Mrs. Gibble also bakes for the North End and Good Will Fire company affairs.

As a Summer cook, Mrs. Gibble believes there is no reason why the family should go hungry or the mother should suffer.

"After all," she proclaims,

Now she enjoys it so much, and has become so proficient, that she often helps prepare banquets at Maria Assunta lodge.

Another of her favorite dishes is corn pie. She makes the dough brown.

Baking time in a 350 degree oven is one hour. The pie may be made in the cool morning and kept in the icebox till evening.

Another favorite Summer dish with corn is corn fritters.

For this, Mrs. Gibble grates the kernels of 12 uncooked ears of corn. She adds salt to taste and enough flour to make the mixture thick. These are dropped in deep fat until COOKING AND CLUBWORK combine for a successful home making recipe, believes Mrs. Leander Gibble, above, who combines her occupation as housewife with presidency of the St. Clair PTA. Like most Pottstown women Mrs. Gibble faces each Summer the problem of feeding an active family heartily while not "cooking myself along with my meal" in a blistering kitchen. In the accompanying story, she tells a few of her tricks to her area neighbors—and hopes that some of them will return the favor by describing their favorite hot-weather meals in The Mercury's "cool cook" series.

Reading Youth Receives Cuts, Shock As Car Leaps Guard Rail, Overturns

A 19-year-old Reading motorist was injured slightly early Saturday night when his automobile knocked down a guard rail, went down a 20-foot embankment and overturned against a parked car along Route 73, five miles west of Boyertown.

Treated in St. Joseph's hospital, Reading, was Kenneth Pflugfelder, Reading, who suffered shock and cuts of the chin. He was taken to the hospital by State Troopers John Hahn and Henry Wyant.

The state troopers reported that Pflugfelder was traveling west when he overtook a line of cars going in the same direction. He attempted to pass the other cars but was forced to swerve off the road to avoid striking an automobile driven by Harold Weidner, 23, Boyertown, RD 1, who was about to turn left into the road leading from Shanesville to Earlville.

Sabbath Schoolers To Head Program for Leadership Training

A Leadership Training school, sponsored by the Fourth District of the Berks County Sabbath school association, will be held in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, Boyertown, beginning Sept. 14. Sessions will continue for 11 weeks.

Jesse H. Mercer, 31 West Fifth street, Boyertown, president, stated that four courses are being offered and that each person registered will select a first and second period course. A registration fee of one dollar will be received from each person for the course.

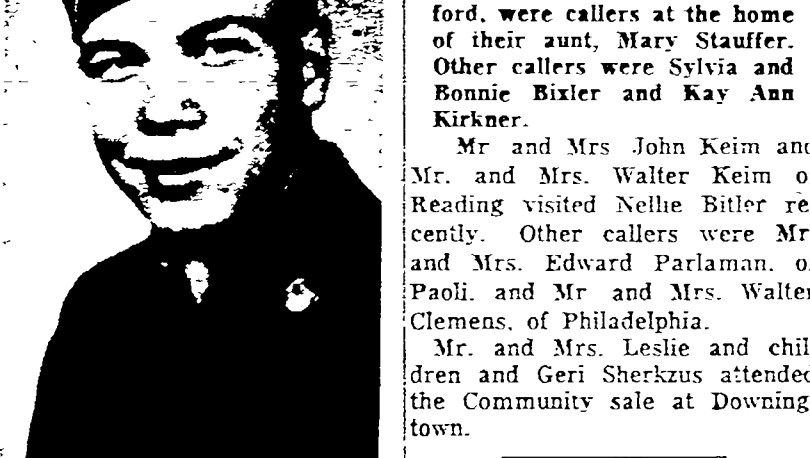

The Rev. Dr. David F. Longacre, pastor of the local Lutheran church which will serve as host for the school, will be dean of the school. The courses being offered and their instructors are as follows: "The Child's Approach to Religion" by the Rev. William H. Solly, pastor of the Amityville, Faulkner, Swamp and Bechtelsville Evangelical and Reformed congregations; "Teaching Intermediates" by the Rev. William L. Shaud, pastor of St. Luke's, Gilbertsville, and St. Paul's, Sassamansville Evangelical Lutheran congregations.

"Planning and Leading Christian Worship" by the Rev. Harper L. Schneck, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Evangelical and Reformed, Boyertown; "Teaching Values in the Revised Standard Version of the New Testament" by the Rev. John C. Sheltzer, pastor of Christ Evangelical and Reformed church, Temple.

Trained Dogs to Be Used Against Terrorist Group

NAIROBI, Kenya, July 5 (AP)—The Royal Air Force has brought in a section of highly trained Alsatian dogs to guard its installations in Kenya against anti-white Mau Mau terrorists. The dogs were airlifted from a training center in the Suez Canal zone.

Corp. John Eisner, in charge, said the dogs are not killers. "They know their job is to take prisoners," he said. "They are faster than anything on two feet and when they spot their man they bring him down."

Man Shot to Death As Robbers Hold Up Dice Game at Picnic

PITTSBURGH, July 5 (AP)—Mike Silich, 27, was shot to death last night by one of two masked gunmen who raided a dice game at a picnic on nearby Wildwood road.

Silich's wife was only a few feet away when her husband was shot before horror-stricken friends.

Patrolman Edwin Hiever of Hampton township said Silich, an employee of H. J. Heinz company, had joined several friends in a dice game when the masked men appeared and declared: "Drop your money."

Some of the men in the game complied but Silich, apparently thinking he knew the pair, walked toward them and said: "Oh, no, you don't get away with that here."

ONE of the gunmen calmly shot Silich in the chest. The robbers hurriedly picked up between $200 and $300 from the ground and fled down a hill, apparently to a waiting auto.

The picnic was sponsored by AFL Local 325 Canning and Pickle Workers.

BUSINESS & INDUSTRY

Merritt Builders Will Help Modernize, Reserve a Room for Meetings, Parties Repair Your Home

Many things can be done today to enhance the livability of your home.

You can build an extra room, install a modern kitchen, or make any number of different repairs and improvements at low cost and enjoy new comfort and convenience.

Remodel a room—There are many decorative panels, planks, tiles and plywoods with which you can go right over old wall surface to renew any room in the house.

Build basement room—If you have basement space that is going to waste, you can transform it into a delightful rumpus room quickly and inexpensively.

ADD AN attic room—Today you can easily convert an unfinished attic into a comfortable bedroom, with new wall panel and plank materials.

Put on new roof—you can add comfort, value and security to your home with one of the many types of roofing sold today.

Modernize kitchen—So much can be done to kitchens to improve them, to make them up-to-date, convenient for the housewife to do her work as well as attractive to everyone.

Merritt's with their building headquarters on the Reading Pike at Stowe, Phone 3550, invite you to drop in and let them plan the future of your home with you. You'll appreciate the sound advice plus quality materials for every building purpose.

Dine in Comfort at Mansion House; Reserve a Room for Meetings, Parties

Do you like to dine in air-conditioned comfort, where the food is good, the service the best and the atmosphere always friendly? Of course you do.

And that means the Mansion House hotel in West Chester, that historic but modern hostelry that has had its doors open to the public since 1821. Now, more popular than ever, the Mansion House hotel counts as its guests people from coast to coast and foreign countries. Many famous names have dotted the hotel blotter during the years the hotel has served the public.

Every effort is made to have a diversified menu and you'll always find choice steaks, chops and other palatable food items that will send you away with that pleasant feeling that always comes with a meal well prepared, well served.

Many service clubs use the Mansion House hotel regularly for their meetings, luncheons and dinners—clubs like Rotary, Lions, Optimist, Soroptimist, etc. With accommodations for almost 200 in the Green room on the second floor of the hotel, here is an ideal spot for that large party. Smaller banquet rooms are available for parties from eight up.

The Garden room or the Main Dining room is at your command with air-conditioned comfort, ideal during the hot Summer days we will experience for some time. The Mansion House hotel in West Chester invites you, as their guests, to partake of their hospitality.

Amusing and frivolous prints are right for informal rooms, while the new papers for kitchen and bath have removed the clinical look for those rooms.

Take new wallpaper. Nothing enhances a home quite as much for so small an investment. Wallpaper, wisely chosen to compliment color schemes and furnishings, can establish the character of a room more readily than any single decorating device. In solid color or pattern, wall treatment provides continuity for grouping of furniture while acting as a pace-setter and occasionally as a camouflage agent, too.

A small cove or corner can become a striking setting by the clever use of a scenic pattern. A papered ceiling and adjacent wall area can form a dramatic background for furniture or accessories. Even an architectural defect can be concealed with bold print.

NEW WALLPAPER collections are assembled to highlight appropriate designs for every period of furniture. Provincial patterns are ever popular. Modern abstractions and geometrics have a third-dimension feeling.

PGA Tournament Pared Down to 4

BIRMINGHAM, Mich., July 5 (AP)—A tiny tiger named Felice Torza, local pinup boy Walter Burkemo and two settled home professionals, Claude Harmon and Jack Isaacs, shot their way into the semifinals of the PGA golf tournament today.

Only Harmon, the spreading, 37-year-old tee master of fashionable Winged Foot in Mamaroneck, N. Y., had it easy, winning 6 and 5 over Bill Nary of Kansas City, whose game collapsed completely in the afternoon after he had taken a one-hole lead through the first 18.

The other three matches, doggedly waged in sweltering 100-plus degree heat, all carried to the 36th hole.

Burkemo, the blond, round-faced pride of nearby Franklin, Mich., met the terrific comeback pressure of Dave Douglas with a brilliant eagle three on the final hole to beat the rallying thin man from Newark, Del., two up.

TORZA, who gets tremendous mileage out of his frail five-foot-six 133 pounds, played steady, unshakable golf and eliminated strapping Jimmy Clark of Laguna Beach, Calif., one up. The St. Charles, Ill., youngster clinched it with a birdie four on the 36th after carrying the creek with a mighty wood shot and then wedged the ball up to within a foot of the pin.

The 45-year-old Isaacs, a picture of tremendous calm, outlasted 42-year-old Henry Ransom of nearby Pontiac, Mich., in a duel of oldtimers, getting birdies on four of the last five holes to prevail, one up. Ransom missed a four-foot birdie putt on the final green while Isaacs' closed it with a birdie nudge of a foot and a half. Isaacs is pro at the Langley Air Force base in Virginia.

Now it's Burkemo against Harmon and Torza against Isaacs in tomorrow's 36-hole round of four battles over the compact 6564-yard, par 71 Birmingham Country club course.

1ST LOSS IN 9 STARTS FOR READING ACE

Pottstown's Charlie Kelly celebrated the Fourth of July by exploding Red Lesher's eight-race winning streak at Sanatoga.

Kelly did what stock car racing fans were beginning to think was impossible. He defeated Lesher in Saturday night's 50-lap feature event to win the D. Kenard Smith Trophy. The Reading redhead, who had won four straight feature events at Sanatoga and another four in a row at Municipal Stadium in Philadelphia, finished second far behind Kelly.

A window washer by trade, Kelly applied the sponge to Lesher's invincibility by winning the tracks' first 50-lap feature with plenty to spare over Lesher and the rest of the big field.

At Municipal on Friday night, Lesher gained his eighth consecutive feature triumph in races promoted by George Marshman. It was a stirring victory as he forged into the lead ahead of Johnny Carbrial on the 45th lap. The much heralded duel between Lesher and Al Tansady, failed to pan out when the New Jersey driver had mechanical trouble with his car, and was unable to qualify for the final 50-lap event.

The second largest crowd of the season, almost 4000 was on hand at Sanatoga expecting to see Red capture the checkered flag for the ninth time. But it was Kelly's night to howl and he circled the 50 laps in 14:33.16.

Kelly started in third position, but in the hustle and bustle of the first lap he faded to seventh. On the third lap he suddenly saw a broad hole and he plunged through. That was the break he needed and once he gained the lead he steadily opened up a gap that none of the other drivers could span.

LESHER, Curt Sherman and Dick Roderberger waged a spirited battle for second place. This trio lapped several other cars, and so doing gave out with some fancy maneuvering so as not to lose any ground.

They finished in a bunch, Lesher second, Sherman third, and Roderberger fourth, all about a half lap behind Kelly.

The real fireworks over the evening took place in the second semi-final.

On the first lap Warren Mutter, Mike Roadcap and Billy Quicksell tied up and went into the fence on the third turn. At the same time, Jimmy Ryan and Al Allison, went into the second turn boards. At that point, driving on the Sanatoga track was almost as hazardous as on the road leading home from Atlantic City.

A complete restart was called but it wasn't long before the track was cluttered with tangled Fords again. This time two laps went by before Ralph Mutter, Paul Gregory, Roadcap and Quicksell hit the fence on the first turn.

AS MARSHMAN so aptly stated after the race:

"Gregory must have set some sort of an altitude record."

George's car went high into the air, took a flip, came down on its roof, bounced some more and finally settled on its side. The driver climbed out, unhurt and unhappy.

It was one of the most spectacular crashes at Sanatoga since the new macadam track has been installed.

In addition to winning the feature event, Kelly won the first semi-final as he outdistanced Buck Grandy and Harry Moore.

Jim Ryan was a double winner with victories in the first heat and again in the second semi. Nevert Reinert and Harry Moore captured the other qualifying races.

THE SMITH TROPHY that Kelly won Saturday, was originally for the winner of the Spring Championships three weeks ago in Reading. The feature race that day was never completed as Bobby Rolland and Ringy Lloyd were killed.

Kelly was running in front when the fatal crash occurred, so it was poetic justice that he should gain the trophy.

It was Charlie's second feature win of the year. Only Newt Reinert, and Lesher have won more than one feature at Sanatoga this season. Reinert has two and Lesher four.

Saettely Fegely Win President's Cup Matches

Lee Saettely and J. C. Fegely advanced into semi-final round of the President's Cup tournament at Brookside Saturday.

Playing in the first 16 of the three division tourney, Saettely and Fegely will compete against each other in an effort to gain a finalist berth.

Saettely gave away more than 20 strokes to little Mary Joan Crarick, but a round of sub-par golf brought him through to a 3-1 victory. Golfing before a gallery of several dozen Fourth of July fans, Miss Crarick played a steady game and only Saettely's great play knocked her out of the running.

Fegely shot a 76 to eliminate Lew Unneberg, 3 and 2. After going out in a two under par, 54, Fegely toured the final nine in 42.

Light Boxing Card Scheduled This Week

NEW YORK, July 5 (AP)—A unique fistic doubleheader, tailored to meet the requirements of coast to coast and local television, features the week's boxing program.

Out in Hollywood, Calif., Saturday night Charley Green of Los Angeles and Esau Ferdinand of Los Angeles will clash at 9 p. m., Pottstown time, in a 12-rounder for the California middleweight title in the Legion stadium.

The bout is being put on during daylight hours on the Coast to meet the co-axial commitments of the Saturday night fight parade which goes coast to coast.

Fans who pay at the gate for this fight then will be able to return at midnight (1 p. m. Pottstown time) for free to see Davey Gallardo and Rudy Garcia, both of Los Angeles, meet for the California featherweight title in another 12-rounder. This bout will be telecast only locally.

THE OTHER coast-to-coast TV show on the slim program will come out of New York's Madison Square Garden on Wednesday night when lightweight contenders Art Persley of New York and Orlando Zuleata of Cuba hook up in a ten-rounder. The 10 p. m. bout will be telecast.

Tuzo (Kid) Portugez of Costa Rica, subbing for ailing Willie Troy of Washington, meets Charley (Red) Williams of Newark, N. J., in the top ten rounder at Brooklyn's Eastern parkway arena Monday night.

Cardinalettes Win Pair of Games in Toronto, Canada

The ever-active Pottstown Cardinals as Eckie Young was out on a dinalettes raided foreign shores for sacrifice.

The local girls defeated Cunningham and Hill in a Friday night game, 7-0, as Jeannie Hecht buried a three-hitter. On Saturday, the Cards had to go 10 innings to beat National Torches, 5-3, as Miss Hecht's fine relief job for two innings made her the heroine of the trip.

Canadian fastball rules were used in the games. The Canadian contest does not differ from the American type play except nine instead of seven innings are played.

After leaving Pottstown Thursday night, the Cards arrived in Toronto Friday, took a brief rest and played C&H under the lights.

EVERYBODY in the Cards' lineup had one hit except Miss Hecht, and she worked her way into the scoring with a pair of walks. She stroled in the third inning, took second as Lois Adams was safe on an error, and scored on a single by Dottie Frech.

Miss Adams scored the second ings but in the eighth she weakened. After a recent knee operation, Miss Leinbach was not ready for the long nine-inning haul.

The Cards had taken a 2-0 lead but four Torch hits and a pair of walks tied the count at 3-3 in the eighth. Miss Hecht came in to relieve in the ninth and pitched two innings of shutout ball.

IN THE TOP of the 10th, Miss Leinbach reached first on an error. Mary Jane Delp's sacrifice was successful, and a single by Jane Yergery scored Miss Smith from second. Miss Adams then singled Miss Yergery home for the game.

Miss Gantert's defensive work at third base won the plaudits of the Canadian fans. Miss Smith narrowly missed clearing the fences with several long drives.

The Cards have no home game scheduled this week. Saturday they will play in Washington, D. C. in a doubleheader with Arcade Pontiac. Sunday they meet Garvins Grill in the capital.

THE CARDS spoke highly of the northern hospitality which included a three-hour bus tour of Toronto, Saturday.

National Torches, a member of the Sunnyside Fastball League, gave the Cards a real scrap.

Kluszewski, Mantle Win Balloting As All-Star Lineups Announced

CHICAGO, July 5 (AP)—Sixteen players chosen by nearly 4½ million fans in a world-wide poll were named today for the 20th annual big league All-Star game at Cincinnati's Crosley Field July 14.

All first team spots for both National and American league teams were filled by the poll except those of the pitchers. Pitcher selections will be announced in a day or so by Manager Casey Stengel and Chick Dressen.

The two managers will also pick supporting personnel to back up the fans' first teams in the outfield, infield and back of the home plate.

Tabulators announced that 4,403,338 votes were cast in this year's poll — a total beaten only in 1949 when 4,637,743 votes were counted.

Here are the teams selected in the 22-day contest, with their positions and batting averages:

NATIONAL LEAGUE

WASHINGTON, July 5 (AP) — Ex-Yankees Bob Porterfield and Johnny Schmitz tormented their former teammates with clever step: a double-header from New York, 4-0 and 5-4, today before a crowd of 27,025, largest of the season here.

Porterfield allowed only one runner to reach second base while pitching a five-hitter in the opener for his 10th victory.

Schultz, the Senators' third pitcher in the second game, allowed five hits and one run in the final five innings to win his second decision. Jerry Snyder, also formerly the property of the Yankees, drove across two hits and scored another on three runs in the ninth against the Senators clubbed Bob Kuzava for 12 hits.

Washington chased starter Albe Reynolds in the second inning of the opener after clipping him for three runs in the first inning with one out Gene Woodling singled and Irv Noren and Yogi Berra walked to fill the bases. Al Sima replaced Marrero and Woodling scored on Joe Collins' fly to Jim Busby in center. Wayne Terwilliger's single and Mickey Vernon's triple tied it up in the first inning.

Connie Marrero, who started the Sox run and hit his seventh home run in his second game for Washington, led off the season over the left-field fence and failed to survive the first inning.

The split between the second-place rivals, who stand 4-4 in games with six more coming up in the next seven days, enabled both to gain a game on the league-leading Yankees. The Yanks' double loss in Washington cut their lead over Chicago to 5½ games.

CARDINALS, BRAVES SPLIT; SPAHN HURLS SHUTOUT

MILWAUKEE, July 5 (AP) — Red Bill Bruton's infield single and Schoendienst's pinch home run scored on Johnny Logan's fly with two on in the sixth gave St. Louis a 4-1 triumph over Milwaukee in the second game of a doubleheader halted by darkness; at the end of eight innings today in after the Braves had won the opener, 4-0.

Schoendienst, taken out of the opener in the sixth inning with a groin injury, hit for Steve Bilko with two out and laced one of the Max Surkont's pitches over the right-field fence to score Stan Musial and Enos Slaughter, who had walked. The Cardinals' first run came in the same inning when Manager Eddie Stanky, replacing Schoendienst at second base, singled.

Homers by Logan and Eddie Mathews, each with a man on base, accounted for the Braves' victory in the opener as Warren Spahn tossed a three-hitter for the 29th shutout of his career. Mathews' 472-foot clout, his 24th pulled him back even with Cincinnati's Ted Kluszewski for the major league home run lead and tied him with Gus Bell in the RBIs bracket with 68.

Two of the three hits off Spahn, who posted his 10th victory, were by Lowrey and the other by Ray Jablonski. The veteran southpaw did not walk a man and struck out two.

gled, was sacrificed to second and scored on Peanuts Lowrey's fly after the two walks.

Stu Miller, posting his third win against four losses, was nicked for the Braves' lone run in the ninth when George Crowe doubled for Surkont, moved up on

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

THREE BIG GAME hunters were resting by their campfire after a hard day of tracking the jungle when the eldest of them suddenly announced, "I'm restless. Think I'll go for a short hike before bed." The other two didn't fret about his non-appearance for over an hour, then one glanced at his watch and murmured, "Hm! Wonder what's eating Bill?"

Lee Shull knows a magician who has devised an ingenious switch on that overused gum-muck of sawing people in half. This fellow pastes two midlegs together.

A man marched up to the box-office of a deluxe movie palace with a full-grown zebra in tow and asked for two seats in the balcony. "You mean to say," demanded the girl in the box-office, "that you want to take that zebra into the balcony of our theatre?" "That's right," agreed the man. "He likes to smoke."

He Came to Program, Stayed Twenty Years

By Central Press

CHICAGO—There's been a story lurking around your breakfast table these past few years.

It's the story of Don McNeill and his "Breakfast Club" radio program, which on June 23 celebrated its 20th anniversary on the air. On that date the show staged its 5768th program (it never has taken a summer recess). This will make it the nation's oldest, continuous daytime network program.

The story is one of failure, initially. Then—through ideas and perseverance—success and, finally, fame and recognition. It's a story as American as ham 'n' eggs. And with a touch of corn, too, if you please.

After being graduated from Marquette university in 1929, and fired from his first radio job shortly thereafter—because, as his boss put it, "You have no future in radio"—Don McNeill got a job on another Milwaukee station as an announcer. A brief stint in Louisville followed, then San Francisco, finally back to Chicago where on the verge of despair, Don grasped his golden opportunity.

"I WOULDN'T SAY I was discouraged right about that time," McNeill says, "but when the old Blue network selected me to emcee a harmless, early morning program called 'The Pepper Pot.' I was so afraid they'd change their minds I even consented to serve as a staff announcer on the side six days a week."

However, Don recognized the audience potential of his early morning radio package and gradually set about incorporating a few of his own ideas into the show to boost its stock.

The first thing he did was to change the name of the program to "Breakfast Club." Then, with a firm grip on the show's format, he arranged rehearsals for the studio orchestra, acquired a producer, an audience, set interviews, and finally landed those all-important people called sponsors.

Don's natural ingredients, combining corn and sentiment, blended smoothly with the program's alter. The program itself, when McNeill asks his listeners to send a "Sunshine Greeting" to patients in hospitals or institutions, his request is rewarded with hundreds of cards and letters that lend inspiration and condolence to appreciative shut-ins.

Likewise Don receives many contributions each month from listeners for his "Memory Time" feature, during which he reads nostalgic poems over a musical background; and for his "Prayer Time" segment during which listeners throughout the country participate by pausing in their daily duties to "... bow their heads and ... pray."

The show lists among its alumni such illustrious performers as Jim (Fibber) McGee and Marion (Molly) Jordan, Jack Owens, the Merry Macs, Johnny Johnston and Clark Dennis.

At 112 North Washington street with the Rev. Burtis A. Hallock, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment will be made in the Pottstown West End cemetery.

MRS. CAROLINE A. (McCULLOUGH) REIGHTNEUR, 81, 546 NORTH BROAD STREET, SPRING CITY, died Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Minerva Polley, with whom she was living. She was bedfast for the past four months due to a broken hip.

The wife of the late Edgar Reightneur, who died about three years ago, she was the daughter of the late Jacob and Amanda (Hunter) McCullough. She was born in York county but spent most of the past 60 years in the Pottstown area.

She was a member of the Methodist church.

Funeral services will be held from a funeral home at 404 High street with the Rev. Cletus E. Naylor officiating.

Interment will be in Edgewood cemetery.

SERVICES FOR FRANK WILLIAMS, husband of Edna (Colbert) Williams, of 710 MINTZER STREET, were held Saturday at 2 p. m. from the Second Baptist church.

Officiating was the Rev. Heywood L. Butler, pastor of the Second Baptist church. He was assisted by the Rev. Wallace Rozell and the Rev. Charles Butler. Interment was made in the Second Baptist cemetery, Douglassville.

Bearers were: Oscar Jackson, Edward Malone, Odell Henry, Bud Carter, Lester Rogers and Rosie Ferner.

PHILIP TRENDLER, 68, husband of Eva (Blie) Trendler, 420 JEFFERSON STREET, died Saturday afternoon in Memorial hospital. He had been ill for the past five weeks and a patient at the hospital for the past 16 days.

Born in Austria, he was the son of the late Philip and Katherine (Beiszer) Trendler. He came to the Pottstown area in 1908 and lived at the late address since 1924.

He was employed as a blacksmith at the Alan Wood Steel company, Cophschocken.

Surviving besides his wife are: four daughters, Elizabeth, wife of Paul Harner, Pottstown Rd 2; Helen, wife of Howard Hartenstein, Pottstown Rd 3; Mrs. Josephine Miller, at home; and Sue Trendler, at home; one son, John, Boyertown Rd 2, and six grandchildren.

A brother, Michael C. Trendler, Philadelphia, also survives.

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. from a funeral home
